

The Bone & Joint Journal

70 years of orthopaedic excellence

Reviewers' Day

This newly revamped course is ideal for anyone wanting to be involved in peer review. It also provides essential information and tips for writing papers.

Topics covered include:

- History of the BJJ
- Orthopaedic Publishing in 2018
- Peer Review
- Statistical Guidelines
- Outcome Measures
- Primary Editing
- Anatomy of a Journal

There are also practical sessions.

The faculty include:

Professor Fares Haddad Editor-in-Chief

Dr Aviva Petrie Statistician

Mr James Scott Editor Emeritus

Mr Sam Oussedik and Mr Daniel Perry

Wednesday 4th July 2018

Approx. 09:00 to 16:00

Wednesday 14th November 2018

Approx. 09:00 to 16:00

The British Editorial Society of

Bone & Joint Surgery

22 Buckingham Street

London WC2N 6ET

+44 (0)20 7782 0010

To book, contact Deborah Gray (d.gray@boneandjoint.org.uk)

There is a non-refundable £50 fee + VAT taken upon booking.

Book
now