

Criteria for Nathalie Barr Award Winners

A nominee should be considered to have significantly contributed to the field of hand therapy via the following means:

1. Should have had at least 10 years experience in hand therapy working at senior level
2. Should be considered an expert in the field of hand therapy
3. Should have some publishing experience as an author/co-author in a paper in a relevant hand therapy/surgery journal or book
4. Should have served time on a BAHT or EFSHT/IFSHT committee or sub-committee
5. Should have experience of presenting on at least 5 occasions to a hand therapy/surgery audience
6. Should have evidence of teaching on relevant hand therapy study days or courses
7. Should have demonstrable experience in audit and research
8. Should be comparable to the standard of previous NB award winners